Any person aged 18 or over can apply for a share in CHISEL Ltd. Organisations can also apply. If the organisation is unincorporated, it must nominate an individual to become a delegate member on its behalf. An incorporated organisation can appoint a deputy to represent it at meetings and vote on its behalf.

The applicant will need to be able to demonstrate a genuine interest in CHISEL's work.

Shareholders responsibilities can be summarised as:

- To act at all times in the interests of the Association
- To be bound by the obligations set out in the Associations Rules.
- To attend and vote at the AGM
- To have CHISEL's aims and interests in mind and to promote these in the local community.

Type of shareholder: (please tick one box only)

- Tenant of CHISEL
- Constituted Organisation (a registered body)
- Unconstituted Organisation (an informal organisation which is not registered)
- Individual

If you are an unconstituted organisation applying for a share, please give the name and address of your nominee. If you are a constituted organisation you may, if you wish, name an individual to exercise your rights at general meetings:
